PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

J. J. Stevens and wife, who have been visiting relatives in Nelson county, returned yesterday.

Rev. J. W. Wolfe, of Greenville circuit, Augusta county, who is attending the conference, is the father of Officer Wolfe, of the police force. The father looks almost as young as the son—not saying that Officer Wolfe is by any means an old man.

William Lavender, charged with vagrancy, was jailed last night by Officer Tinsley.

Officer Manual pulled John Ryan in off Railroad avenue last night. He was very drunk.

G. W. Burrows was arrested by Officer Eanes last night on the charge of shooting in the city limits.

Henry Baldwin, Leo Ross, Tom Calloway and Charles Mills trespassing on the railroad and jumping from a train, were arrested and jailed by Officers J. A. Vest and Eanes.

Officer Mabry arrested William Clark for fighting on Railroad avenue last night. His victim wasn't hurt.

Dr. E. E. Hoess, editor of the Nashville Christian Advocate is the guest of Rev. C. H. Buchanan. Mrs. J. W. Newton, who is visiting the conference is also the guest of Rev. Mr. Buchanan.

ALMOST A FIGHT.

All About a Sign Warning People from Danger at a New Building.

What came near being a fight was caused by a peculiar thing on Salem avenue yesterday.

Shockey & Gladden are building the new hotel of E. R. Woodward, corner Salem avenue and Commerce street.

Their foreman, Mr. Cornelius, put up a sign warning people to the other side of the street. The masons were at work on the wall and there was danger of some one being hurt. This precaution was taken for what the contractors considered as public safety.

V. P. Moir, who keeps a grocery at 212 Salem avenue, just west of the building, took exception to this sign and tore one of them down. Cornelius nailed it up again. Again Mr. Moir came out and was about to tear down the sign. He was warned to desist, and hot words ensued. He claimed that the signs warned people off the street to the detriment of his business. Cornelius still refused to take the sign down, and Moir lodged his complaint before the mayor, but the mayor didn't order the signs down.

Amusements.

The Noss family closed their engagement at the Opera House last night, and the performance was equally as fine as on Tuesday night. For pure, wholesome fun, and excellent music, the splendid company is unexcelled. From Mr. Noss down to Bertha, the "baby," every member of the family is an artist. Mr. Fred Noss is also a composer of much merit, as his arrangement of "The Sleigh Ride Party" fully demonstrated. Eight years ago the Noss family were giving parlor entertainments in the towns around Pittsburgh. Since then they have traveled all over the country, winning golden laurels wherever they go.

To-night J. C. Stewart in the "Fat Men's Club" will be the attraction, and contains many good musical selections. Mr. Stewart, as a fat comedian, ranks foremost in his profession. He has surrounded himself with an excellent company, and the entertainment to-night will be one of the funniest that has been here this season.

The Southern Finance Company.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Southern Finance Company was held yesterday morning at the Citizens' Bank. J. B. Levy was acting secretary and treasurer. Mr. D. C. Gallaher having resigned some time ago. It was decided to move the home office of the company to Danville, the greater portion of the stock being held in that city. Negotiations were announced as being made with certain Lynchburg people to build a street railway there, besides other important and extensive works, plans of which are being examined.

To Build a New Church.

The trustees of Lee-street M. E. Church are marking an effort to improve their property. They will move the church further back from the street and lower it some three or four feet. As it is at present the church is almost inaccessible from the fact that the street has been cut down about ten feet in front of the building.

NOTICE, REAL ESTATE BUYERS.

Commonwealth avenue is the business street of the northside. Seventy per cent. of all money paid out at the Machine Works, the Rolling Mills and the Bridge Works goes there, and all is tributary to Commonwealth avenue business houses.

We have 83 1/2 feet front on this avenue which can be had for $4,500, or about $54 per foot; $5 cash, balance one and two years; practically nothing to assume; a cottage and store thereon renting for $18. A fair interest on your investment.

A party has offered to take a lease of the lot and put up a substantial building at his own expense.

A lot on the opposite corner is held at $240 per foot. Another adjoining the property is held at $146 per foot.

Just think of it a moment. Property adjoining it held at three times the price, and on the opposite corner at almost five times the price, and neither a bit better.

The owner needs money and wants to sell. G. W. CRUMPECKER, mar12-4t-p8 No 19 Jefferson avenue.
